CostsFirst™

Accurate closing costs, anywhere, anytime.

CostsFirst™ uses cloud-based technology to provide access to your customized account anytime, anywhere and on any device.

When used with myFirstAm®, CostsFirst™ automatically imports the property address, property taxes, escrow and title fees directly to the net sheet, even calculating tax prorations to the day of closing.

Save your files on any device and open the same file anywhere in the world on any other device.

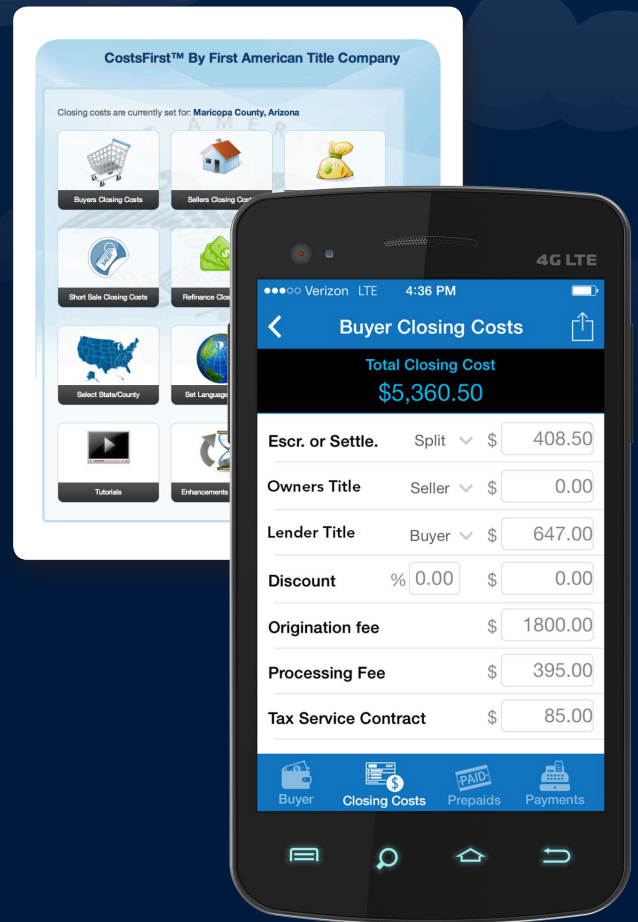

Access closing costs for many states from your single CostsFirst™ account. Simply select the State and County for immediate calculations, including local prorations where available.

Visit www.CostsFirst.com or contact your local First American Title representative for more information.
